

HEBREW NEW YEAR BEGINS WEDNESDAY

Occasion Will Be Celebrated in Local Synagogues by Prayer and Special Services.

Wednesday of this week will see the beginning of Rosh Hashanah, the Hebrew festival of the new year. The occasion will be celebrated in local synagogues by services, prayer, and other means.

The characteristic note of the two days' solemnities, according to Hebrew authorities, is self-examination and introspection. This is expected to lead, through repentance, to betterment and improvement. This is brought home to every individual by the thought that the new year is the day of judgment, when the good and the evil of man's acts are weighed.

The "shofar," or ram's horn, is blown to arouse the conscience of those who are dormant or indifferent. It is a warning that danger is near, and that a remedy must be provided.

In the Adath Israel Synagogue the services will begin Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Services also will be held Thursday and Friday mornings at 10 o'clock, the Rev. A. Shefferman officiating, with a special choir. On Wednesday evening Rabbi Benjamin L. Grossman will deliver a prayer, and Thursday morning he will preach on "The Triple Force—Israel's Solitude." His subject Friday morning will be "The Nation's Call."

MAY SETTLE ISSUE OF COLORED BISHOPS

Protestant Episcopal Church Convention to Take Up Special Commission Report.

The advisability of naming colored bishops in the Protestant Episcopal Church will be discussed at the general convention in St. Louis in October. A special commission of bishops, clergymen and laymen, appointed at the 1913 convention to investigate the question, has completed its report, one a majority favoring the naming of colored bishops, the other a minority report opposing the proposal.

The majority report, which includes the signature of the chairman, the Bishop of North Carolina, Texas and Mississippi and the lay members from Virginia and Rhode Island recommends grouping the colored members of the church in the southern dioceses into one or more missionary districts over which colored bishops would be placed. The minority report is signed by the Bishops of South Carolina and Georgia, Rev. Dr. Stiles of New York, and Judge Joseph Packard of Baltimore, who favor election of suffragan bishops for this work.

REV. J. F. BRYAN TO MEET CONGREGATION

The Rev. J. Frederick Bryan, new pastor of the North Carolina Avenue M. E. Church, preached his first sermon at the church at 11 o'clock this morning on the subject, "Opportunities of a City Church." Mr. Bryan, until called to Washington, was in charge of the South Baltimore station of the Methodist Protestant Church of Baltimore. He held that charge for seven years, during which 30 new members were added to the congregation and improvements totaling more than $1,000 were made.

Mr. Bryan's family consists of his wife and two daughters, one seventeen and the other ten years old.

SIDNEY B. LUST Presents
For a Limited Engagement

"PURITY"

A Tremendous Seven-Act Art Photo-Drama of Rich Charm—Featuring
AUDREY MUNSON
The World's Most Famous Artists' Model

—A wonderful story of a beautiful, innocent girl with a wonderful form, a poet with verses to sell, an artist with pictures to paint—and a villain with devilry to try—written by the celebrated Clifford Howard—a supporting cast of nearly two hundred specially trained dancers—splendidly staged amid the scenic splendors of a millionaire's fairy land kingdom in sunny California—a masterpiece, a photoplay to make history.

What the Newspapers Say About "PURITY"

The New York World:
The screen showed thirteen separate views of Miss Munson's widely advertised nude poses. Some had been shortened to mere flashes and just drew gasps from the spectators. Others remained long enough to prompt applause.

The New York Herald:
By reason of an audacious but inoffensive display of Miss Munson's bodily charms, and because the photoplay was exceptionally fine, the pictures held the attention of the audience. Miss Munson is such a nice appearing young woman and so naive that she may appear before the camera and be passed by George H. Bell, Commissioner of Licenses, where some more self-conscious aspirant might not.

The New York Sun:
Although Miss Munson has never had an opportunity to display her talents as an actress, she dominates the play in a series of artistic poses which are always attractive to the eye.
